OPERATIONAL EXCELLENCE/LEAN SIX SIGMA INTERNSHIP New Albany, Ohio

We are looking for a passionate, self-motivated student to work at our global corporate headquarters.

Duties

Participate in, and support activities specific to CVG OpEx and Six Sigma projects, annual company-wide training, and presentations. The student will work side by side with our accomplished senior OpEx and Corporate/Plant Engineering teams, Regional Six Sigma Deployment Managers, Black & Green Belts and cross-functional members of our organization while gaining exposure to CVG's technologies, competitive landscape, and manufacturing environment.

Requirements

Applicants should be undergraduate students (with at least 2 years remaining in their program) or graduate students studying Industrial Systems Engineering or a related discipline. We are interested in highly motivated candidates with a wide variety of skills. Must be at an advanced level with MS Word, Excel, and PowerPoint. This position may include travel to our facilities as necessary for training and projects as needed. Preference to candidates with exposure to and/or experience with Six Sigma methodologies and tools.

The ideal student will be available 10-20 hours per week through the 2020 spring and fall semesters, with the ability to work full-time through summer. Depending on business needs this internship may continue into 2021. This position is located at our headquarters in New Albany; students must have transportation.

Questions should be directed to Jenna Commisa, Sr. Corporate HR Generalist & Internship Program Administrator at 614-289-5393 or Jenna.Commisa@cvgrp.com.
