

Summer Interns Needed!

Commercial Vehicle Group, Inc. (CVGI) is a leading supplier of warehouse automation and robotic assemblies, electric wire harnesses, seating systems, mechanical assemblies, structures, plastic products and more to a variety of industrial industries. We built our reputation in commercial vehicles and continue to grow and adapt our design and manufacturing expertise into new industries, including electric vehicles, ecommerce and more.

We are currently looking for talented and motivated students for our 12-week summer program at our Global Corporate Headquarters located in New Albany, Ohio.

Students will work with our corporate staff while gaining exposure to our technologies, our competitive landscape, and our corporate culture. Applicants should be rising juniors or seniors studying Accounting, Finance, Marketing, Computer Science/Information Systems, or Electrical Engineering. We are interested in highly motivated candidates with a wide variety of skills.
